

Aidan 11s

B♭ Major, Isaac Watts

Ed Johnson-Williams, July & September 2025

1. I dreamt I was out, to the east cast mine eye, The at - mos-phe calm and se - rene was the
 2. A pil - lar of cloud in the east did ap - pear, A throne in the midst on which Je - sus sat

3. The next I heard Je - sus say "Come you up here;" Then all the blest nat - ions a - rose with - out

4. Then, in the sweet tran - sport, my feet left the ground With - out a - ny mo - tion of bo - dy or sky; So calm, still and aw - ful, tre - men - dous the sight; I thought the last judge - ment was dawn - ing to light.

 fair, Who co - ming a - long the e - ther - 'al bright plain And soar - ing a - loft till the midst He did gain.

fear, And quit - ting the globe with great plea - sure did sing A song that was ne - ver be - fore tuned to string.

sound; My joys were un - speak - ab - ly full of de - light; So loud was the mus - ic it o'er - came me quite.