

Skiddaw CM

E \flat Major, Morgan D. Jones

Ed Johnson-Williams, October & November 2025

The musical score consists of four staves of music in E flat Major, 3/4 time. The first staff uses a treble clef, the second a soprano clef, the third an alto clef, and the fourth a bass clef. The music is primarily composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the staves in pairs of lines corresponding to the notes. The first pair of lyrics is:

1. May God His rich-est blessings give To you, my dear young friend;
2. Your youth-ful days will soon be gone, For time is fly - ing by;

The second pair of lyrics is:

And make you use - ful while you live, And save you at the end.
Our days and years pass swift - ly on, We'll soon be called to die.
